2018 PINOT NOIR MONTEREY COUNTY

Since 1980, the Hahn family has cultivated their hillside vineyards in Monterey County. Today, Hahn wines represent the family's commitment to craft rich, supple wines which over deliver on quality yet are perfect for everyday enjoyment.

WINEMAKING NOTES: The grapes for this wine were grown in the Arroyo Seco appellation of Monterey County, which sits on a gravelly alluvial plain beneath the Santa Lucia mountain range. Cool winds from Monterey Bay ensure gradual ripening and development of vibrant flavors. The rocky soils allow excellent drainage, enhancing intensity and promoting balanced ripeness and acidity.

TASTING NOTES: This wine's bouquet charms with scents of vibrant red cherry, red plum, and hint of spices with slightly toasty notes. On the palate, medium silky tannins with a soft, round mouthfeel and notes of earthiness.

FOOD PAIRINGS: Rare fillet steak and carpaccio, grilled lobster, brie, milder blue cheeses.
